MEN AND WOMEN OFFICE WORKERS!

- Do you know that you live in a changing world?
- Do you know how business conditions affect you, and affect other workers?
- Do you know why we have booms and depressions?
- Do you know why so many people are out of work?
- Do you know why you may earn more at one time than at another?
- Do you know why your wages may buy less at one time than at another?
- Do you know what relation office workers bear to industry and industrial workers?
- Do you know how you and your fellow-workers can intelligently take part in shaping future events? Can the new social legislation help? What can trade unions accomplish for office workers?

Do you know where you may have an opportunity to discuss these and other problems confronting you, and to discover ways in which to make your contribution to our changing world?

There is a school for you!

The Summer School for Office Workers
COST

The cost of the Summer School for Office Workers is met through scholarships provided largely by the local committees. The scholarship is $115 per student, for which the local committee is responsible, with the student contributing whatever is possible. Where such a committee has not yet been formed, or in special cases where the local committee is not able to raise the entire amount, the National Committee offers whole or partial scholarships.

TWO-WEEK INSTITUTE

In addition to the regular school, a two-week institute will be held during the first half of the school session. This institute is planned for those students who are unable to attend the full four weeks. Students attending the institute will share in the recreational and social life of the school. The institute will be held from August 1 to August 15.

The cost is met through scholarships of $85 per student. Responsibility for these scholarships is similar to that of the scholarships for the school.
