TIPS WHEN YOU GO ON TELEVISION

What to say:
1. Know what you're talking about. Have facts.
2. Speak directly. Develop eye contact.
3. Prepare for what the proponents will say.

How to look on TV:
Reducer. Go on diet. TV adds 10 lbs.
Sit up straight. Do not slump down in Chair.

Clothes:
1. Not white or black.
2. Prints awful on TV.
3. Nothing glittery or shiny. They reflect.
4. Solid, strong colors. Pastels pale out. Orange and red are good.
5. Suits look humpy. No pants.
7. Over 40: don't show neck.
9. Make up: Learn eye make-up well. Use more make-up than usual. Pancake make-up best.
10. Keep movements to a minimum.
11. Hair, not too much.
12. Look happy - Smile (not forced).
13. Go on TV prepared with own questions - any other meeting.
14. Stalling: If opposition tries to break your thought or throw you off base with irrelevant question, say simply and sweetly, "I'm glad you asked (or asked) that" then go on the offensive and say what you were going to say all along.
15. Cover knees as you sit.
16. Cross ankles and pull under as you sit.
