AMERICA"

A Patriotic Revue For National Defense

French Lick Springs Hotel Auditorium
French Lick, Indiana

THURSDAY, MAY 21, 1942
At 2:00 P. M.
HENRY F. SCHRICKER, GOVERNOR OF INDIANA

"America is faced today with a clear alternative; to win or to die. We live in a world where might rules. We are learning again the lesson of history, that the strong survive.

"The strength of a nation is in the hearts of her people; the weakness of a nation is in the apathy of her people. I welcome the patriotic revue, 'You Can Defend America,' to Indiana because it is part of a program to build men, men born to sacrifice and bred to discipline. This revue reminds us again that people, not plans, are the heart of production; that caring, not cash, builds a conquering spirit; that our hearts must burn for our country or our country will burn for want of us. This spirit is the greatest need in our country today. Without it, defeat is certain. With it, victory is ours."

MRS. JOHN L. WHITEHURST, PRESIDENT
GENERAL FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

"The destiny of America hangs in the balance of a total war. We move uncompromisingly toward total material armament. With equal mastery our people must quickly build the spiritual bastions of defense. 'You Can Defend America' gives the secret of morale and how to build it. It gives the moral dynamic that will insure total victory."

MRS. OSCAR A. AHLGREN, PRESIDENT
INDIANA FEDERATION OF CLUBS

"From the first time I saw the revue 'You Can Defend America' in Washington I was convinced that we must have it in Indiana. Here were people who had liberty with discipline, tough-minded patriots with the most practical program of victory that I have yet seen. Many people talk about morale—this revue shows what it is and how to get it.

"That's a lesson we women must learn. Our job today is not only to serve in home, factory, hospital, farm. It is also our job to fire the hearts of men to live for America with the same brilliant heroism with which the heroes of Bataan died for her. Indulgent in peace-time, confused in war-time, our people need an inner change as radical as that imposed on the nation by war. We need a change of heart. That is the only foundation for permanent victory. And this revue 'You Can Defend America' is laying that very foundation. That is why I consider it a priority for victory."
